

Information sheet for “Deutschlandticket Sozial”

Information for the district of Borken

From 1 April 2024, the Münsterland district of Borken offers the “Deutschlandticket Sozial” for an even lower price. For persons aged 21 years and older the price is 25 euros per month and for persons under the age of 21 years the price is 9 euros per month. It is valid on all buses, trams and trains of local public transport across Germany.

Recipients of the following social benefits can purchase a ticket at a reduced price:

- Benefits according to the Social Code II
- Benefits according to the Social Code XII
- Welfare allowance according to the Federal War Victims Relief Act (BVG)
- Benefits according to the Asylum Seekers’ Benefit Act (AsylbLG)

The responsible government agency of your place of residence will check if you are entitled to the “Deutschlandticket Sozial”. If you are entitled to a “Deutschlandticket Sozial”, you will receive a certificate as proof.

The “Deutschlandticket Sozial” will be issued for the term of the certificate, however, not longer than one year. To renew it, you have to submit a new certificate of entitlement to purchase the “Deutschlandticket Sozial”.

Please note that we will automatically change the price of your “Deutschlandticket Sozial” from 9 euros to 25 euros on your 21st birthday. If you do not want us to do this, you can cancel your “Deutschlandticket Sozial” by the 15th of the previous month.
